BEIT SHEMESH: RISING AFTER DEVASTATION

In Beit Shemesh, a devastating missile strike left nine people killed, 40 injured, and dozens of homes destroyed, forcing families to evacuate overnight.

“

We faced an unprecedented event in our city. In those difficult moments, the support from Keren Hayesod gave our residents strength and showed them they were not alone.

THE KEREN HAYESOD SHELTER THAT SAVED LIVES

A Keren Hayesod-funded mobile shelter in Karmiel saved six teenagers who had only seconds to flee the soccer field as the siren sounded.

“

I was the last one in. I closed the door and pulled my friends into the protected space, and then the explosion happened.

Efi Schwartz, 12 Resident of Karmiel

Amigour Senior Citizen Homes

For thousands of elderly residents, reaching shelter in time was not always possible. Many were alone. Many were afraid. Even stepping outside for basic necessities became a risk they could not take.
